THE WASHINGTON HALL RUINS.
The Committee on Fire Department submitted the report of the Board of Control cause of the Washington Hall fire. The flues and walls of the burned building were examined by the Board of Control, assisted by the Hook and Ladder Company. The flues were found in good order, and the Board were of the opinion that the fire could not have originated from a defective flue, but must have arisen from the carelessness of some unknown person, or from incendiarism.

The Board of Control examined the walls by request of the Committee on Fire Department, and report them unsafe, especially the west and south walls, and they recommend that the same be taken down.

The committee recommended the adoption of resolutions as follows: That the report of the Board of Control in relation to the cause of the fire in Washington Itall be received and filed for future reference; that the bill of Chief Marshal Winder, for services rendered as Fire Warden, thirty days at $2 per day, $60,
